

I love the "Do not call" law. Unwanted calls almost never happen anymore. Our family is not constantly called by mortgage and credit card companies anymore. We should have a choice whether or not we wish to be bothered in our home AND online with spam.